Course aim

To be able to produce a range of more complex baked goods; decorating and presenting them with different techniques to a high standard.

Course outcomes

1. Make cakes/bakes and use a range of decorating techniques, e.g. large decorated cake, macarons
2. Produce sweet and savoury pastry items, e.g. choux pastry (profiteroles), mini lemon meringue pies, quiche
3. Make enriched bread products, e.g. doughnuts, Chelsea buns
4. Make biscuits and ice in a variety of ways, e.g. Viennese biscuits, gingerbread men

How will the course be taught?

Demonstration, group and 1:1 support.

What do I need to bring / have ready?

This course is designed for those with some experience of baking as it will be faster paced than the beginners course and cover more complex recipes

Advice and guidance will be given regarding the equipment needed over the course

Please bring ingredients (using the recipes provided each week) and a suitable container to cook/take products home in.

An email will be sent with full instructions on what to bring for the first session
