UKSPF aims to level up the whole of the UK by building pride in place, supporting local businesses and people, and skills.

What will I learn?

A course aimed at complete beginners wishing to explore expression in art through a variety of art media. Each week a landscape challenge is set out with a different art medium. Aimed at learners with little or no art experience and a chance to try a range of media including, pencil/graphite, charcoal, watercolour, pastels and acrylic.

To discover the advantages of art as a source of relaxation and a creative expressive outlet.

What will I need to take part?

Equipment and art materials will be provided. TBC

This course will be taught face to face.

What to expect

Learners to experience over the five weeks a range of art media: pencil/graphite, charcoal, watercolour, pastel and acrylic.

Learners to experience during the five weeks a still life challenge and recreate their own expressive response using the art material available at weekly session.

Learners to explore different media to enable learners to choose with acquired knowledge which further art course they may wish to enrol upon.
