What will I learn?

This qualification aims to develop your knowledge and understanding of the key principles of counselling skills in everyday life and work, and some of the approaches that underpin the use of these skills. This course is ideal if you are looking to gain a qualification through a flexible self-study approach. You can start the course anytime throughout the year and can be completed within 12 weeks. The course is delivered through our online platform, where you will be given the relevant learning materials and assessments for this qualification.

What will I need to take part?

The course is delivered through our online platform, where you will be given the relevant learning materials and assessments for this qualification. However, you will need a laptop, PC, or tablet, and a stable internet connection.

What to expect

The course is online; you will receive a login to our learning platform where you will find interactive learning materials and assessments. You will be given deadlines to complete and submit the work. You will receive detailed feedback on your work so that you can improve your skills as you progress through the qualification.

You will be assigned a Tutor, who will be in touch throughout the 12 weeks to discuss your progress and support you through the course.

Where can it lead to?

Learners who achieve this qualification could progress to:

Level 2/3 Diploma in Health and Social care

Level 2 qualifications in Mental Health

Level 2 certificate in safeguarding and prevent

Level 2 in understanding Children and young people's mental health

Level 3 Award in Counselling Skills and Theory
