End Time: 8:30PM
Day: Monday
Sessions: 4
Tutor: Mr Mike Curtis

Course aim

This is a series of 4 course sessions aimed at introducing the fascinating world of Ancient History. Each session will look at a different topic of Ancient History - Emperors of Rome (session 1), Viking England (session 2), the Byzantine world (session 3), 1066 and the Battle of Hastings (session 4).

Course outcomes

1. Introduce learners to Ancient History and the evidence that is used to reconstruct past times.
2. Develop an understanding of how it is sometimes necessary to challenge interpretations and established stories.
3. Gain a perception of some of the exciting remains that still survive and where they can be seen.
4. Demonstrate a better understanding of source materials and the context of their origins.

How will the course be taught?

The course will be taught online via Zoom and will be a live interactive class. Joining instructions along with unique log in for the session will be emailed to you by our support services team prior to the course start date so please check your email address. To take part in the course learners will need either: a computer or laptop, phone or tablet connected to the internet and able to view a live video stream.

What do I need to bring / have ready?
