Course aim

Samba is recognised as the music and dance of Brazil. The music is mostly played on drums and handheld percussion instruments. The aims of this course are to enjoyably learn or enhance musical skills by taking part in group music making in a supportive environment.

Course outcomes

- Understand some of the origins of Samba music
- Recognise most of the basic Samba instruments by name
- Understand how Samba uses call and response, layers or rhythm patterns built over a pulse, different timbres and signals
- Play a variety of rhythm patterns - independently or as part of a group
- Perform as part of a group

How will the course be taught?

The emphasis will be on communicating and working together to make music with enjoyment, learning and using rhythmic patterns orally, clapping, body percussion and playing on a variety of Samba instruments.

What do I need to bring / have ready?

Just bring yourself. Samba can be quite loud so you may choose to bring and use ear plugs.
