Tutor:	Mr David Douglas

What will I learn?

This 5-week Acrylic Painting for Improvers course is a follow -on course for learners who have completed an introductory acrylic painting course or have some basic painting experience. Build on your existing skills as you explore new techniques, develop confidence with colour and composition, and create more detailed and expressive artwork in a supportive and creative environment.

What will I need to take part?

Your tutor will be in contact with you and provide a list of resources you will need to progress through the course

What to expect

Apply a wider range of acrylic painting techniques, including layering, blending, and texture effects.
Use colour mixing and tonal values with greater confidence to create depth and atmosphere within a painting.
Plan and compose artwork using key design principles such as balance, focal points, and perspective.
Produce a completed acrylic painting that demonstrates improved technical skills and personal creativity.

Where can it lead to?

You can progress onto an advanced improvers course

Course eligibility and fees

This adult learning course is available to residents of Northamptonshire who are:

- aged 19 or over on 31st August in the funding year

- resident in England, outside a devolved adult skills funding area.
