Course aim

This course is an introduction to the world of ancient Greece. During the day, the course traces the history of the Greek civilisation through its sites and monuments, archaeological discoveries and finds. The course draws on the rich material culture of the evidence, looking at the discovery and finds from sites like Mycenae and Knossos, the city of Athens, the royal tombs of Vergina, Delphi and other sanctuaries of the gods. This is a good introduction for those considering visiting Greece or who are curious about ancient Greek history, culture and society. The course is divided into two sessions with a break for lunch (not provided).

Course outcomes

1. Recognise the different types of ancient monuments that can be viewed today.
2. Assess the role of arts and crafts within ancient Greek society.
3. Develop a working knowledge of the development of Greek society and culture.
4. Identify the location of the main ancient Greek sites, monuments and national museums.

How will the course be taught?

Face to face in the classroom with an online support page.

What do I need to bring / have ready?

Pen, paper/notebook. Recommended background reading will be shared via the online support page and in the classroom session. Please bring your own drink, snack and lunch.
