Food Safety

Food Safety courses are aimed at people who work in the catering industry where food is prepared, such as restaurants, canteens, hotels, nurseries and care homes. These courses will help you to gain the knowledge and skills necessary to produce safe food, including how to prepare, handle and cook food safely. They will also increase your employability skills if you are looking at a career in catering. Each course is delivered through one 2 hours session per week and typically lasts 4 weeks.

Course Aims

- To gain a Level 2 qualification in Food Safety in Catering.
- To gain knowledge and skills necessary to produce safe food.

Course Outcomes

To learn that food safety is the responsibility of everyone involved in the storage, preparation, cooking service and handling of food.
To learn some ways to be able to produce safe food.
To understand the importance of maintaining good practice in the production of safe food.
To gain new skills, knowledge and confidence in a positive learning environment.

How will the course be taught?

Food Safety courses can be taught online via Google Classroom.

What do I need to have ready?

You will need a laptop, PC or tablet and a stable internet connection. We recommend that you have paper, a pencil, a pen and a notepad during the session. You will need to provide photographic I.D to take the exam.
