Course Aim

Following on from Art History Beginners where we explored Bacchus and Ariadne by Titian we now delve much deeper. Topics include:- Greek art and sculpture, the Renaissance period, the Reformation, the French Revolution and the dawn of Romantics, discovering plein air and the move towards the digital age.

Course Outcomes

- Be aware of the difficulties in clarifying art work provenance in Antiquity.
- Be able to identify some of the events of the period we now know as the Renaissance.
- Identify some of the factors that triggered the Reformation in England and parts of Europe in the 16th century.
- Recognise events that surrounded the Enlightenment, the French Revolution and the awakening of the Romantic pe-riod.
- Identify some of the changes which enabled artists to take creating art outside.
- Be able to engage further with the 'modern' and the concepts of the 'avant guard'.
- Be able to choose a topic and prepare a presentation to share with other learners during week 10.

How will the course be taught?

The course will be taught online via Zoom and will be a live interactive class
