Course Description

This course is for learners who have taken part in Chinese Culture & Mandarin Beg. Pt 1 course or have had a minimum of 20 hours of Mandarin teaching before. It is to enable you to cope simply but effectively in situations you will encounter in everyday life such as shopping, eating out and some travel.

Course Outcomes

- Pronounce words so that they can be understood by native speakers
- Communicate in basic everyday situations
- Demonstrate an understanding of basic vocabulary in the topics taught and some expressions
- Show an appreciation of some of the customs and culture of China

How will the course be taught?

A communicative approach is used. All four skills (speaking, reading, listening, and writing) are practised with the main emphasis on speaking. Learners engage in interactive language activities, participating in group and pair work. Learners will also be offered guidance in self-study and set optional homework tasks.

The course will be taught online via Zoom and will be a live interactive class. Joining instructions along with unique log in for the session will be emailed to you by our support services team prior to the course start date so please check your email address prior to the class. To take part in the course learners will need: a computer, laptop, phone, or tablet connected to the internet and able to view a live video stream.

Could I gain a certificate?

This course is not accredited. A certificate of attendance can be obtained if requested.

What do I need to bring?

Writing materials, you may need to buy a course book, the tutor will advise you.
