Course aims

This online course, using Zoom for delivery, is to learn more about the subject and develop new skills. Using Bacchus & Ariadne, by Titian 1522 as a springboard; learners will examine why images within this artwork 'look' as they do. Discover the story behind the text, and how five fingers can help you analyse an image. "Strike a Pose" invites the learner to observe why art images within the canon of Western European Art History look a certain way within a given text.

Course Outcomes

Identify the 'Serpentine Pose' within "Bacchus & Ariadne, by Titian circa 1520-1523
Evaluate and engage within the narratives surrounding the image.
Discover: Form and Function and how these elements build the narrative.
Utilise the hand: Who, What, When, Where, Why? An aid to analyse.
Identify the art genres and for each genre, be able to; identify what defines the genre and its timeline, discuss examples of the genre and compare and contrast the genres.
