Learn2b

Learn2b courses are free of charge to anyone who lives with (or has experienced) a mental health disorder. Diagnosis is not essential. Tutors, who are selected because of their own experiences of mental health illness will support you throughout your course in a safe, welcoming environment. Email alsreferrals@northnorthants.gov.uk if you would like some help accessing Zoom.

Course aim

Colour and shade can be found everywhere, even in a cup of coffee. You will discover simple ways of using your daily cuppa to create landscape scenes. Learn how to use simple techniques and tools to promote focus and distraction from day to day worries.

Course outcomes

- Experiment using watered-down tea and coffee to make a simple paint/stain and explore light and dark shading
- Discover how painting can be used to promote positive mental health and wellbeing

How will the course be taught?

This course will consist of live virtual sessions using Zoom, a free to use video conferencing platform. A variety of teaching methods will be used which may include group discussion, worksheets, practical activities etc., relevant to the course subject. Handouts may be emailed to you after the session to support your learning.

What do I need to bring/have ready?

To join the live session you will need to access the internet via either a phone/laptop/pc/ipad/tablet, with your webcam and microphone switched on. The session is very interactive so please bring some headphones if you have them, to maintain confidentiality, if you have other people in your home during the restrictions. A notepad and pen may be useful if you wish to take notes. Resources for this course will be sent to you prior to your first practical session. The Tutor will advise what you will need prior to each session.

Further support and progression

If you need help whilst on a course with us, our Learner Support Advisor is available to discuss your needs. We offer a range of services, subject to eligibility, which can include practical support and/or financial assistance to ensure you feel fully supported while learning with us.
